

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

I want information from my stations so that I can make my own decisions - it is your responsibility to provide me with that. I do not want your opinion or the opinions of the money that "owns" the station. Please do not air the anti-Kerry documentary unless you give the same time to anti-Bush documentaries.

Thank you.
